Netatmo means that all moms can enjoy a smarter and a healthier home this Mother's Day

FOR HEALTH-CONSCIOUS MOMS

For Moms, providing the healthiest home possible for their families is a top priority. The Healthy Home Coach is the perfect accessory to help Moms do just that. Whether monitoring the air quality level to make sure the home environment is healthy, or the right humidity levels for a child with asthma, the Healthy Home Coach measures what matters, highlights potential problems, and tells Moms how to fix them.

MSRP: $99

FOR BUSY MOMS

Indoor security camera Welcome has face recognition technology so Moms on-the-go will always know who's at home – whether it's loved ones or a stranger. Even remotely, busy Moms can know if their children are back from school and who are the friends they came home with. Welcome sends the names of the faces it sees to Mom's smartphone, and alerts them in the event of an intruder.
